

Ridgeway Methodist Church invites you to join us

Empowering our Witness

Saturday 21 January 10.00am to 5.00pm

Hampton Manor, Stoke Climsland

with
Colin Salter

Enjoy a day of relaxation and spiritual renewal at Hampton Manor. Situated in tranquil countryside on the Devon and Cornwall border, Hampton manor offers picturesque gardens and cosy log fires.

Our day includes a two-course home-cooked lunch, morning coffee and afternoon tea with cakes, and concludes with a short time of worship.

Introducing Colin Salter

Colin Salter first visited the Sudan in 1979. During the next 20 years, he returned regularly, teaching at Sudanese pastors' conferences and preaching in churches and university fellowships in north-eastern Sudan.

From 1999 to 2003, Colin lived in Bahri and pastored Khartoum International Church. In 2003, he was forced by ill health to cut short his time there, and returned to Cornwall. He has previously been director of Ambassadors for Christ.

Colin is married to Brenda and they live in Redruth.

Directions to Hampton Manor:

Take the A38 over the Tamar Bridge to Saltash. At Carkeel, take the third exit from the roundabout (A388, 'Callington'). Go through Callington and Kelly Bray taking the Launceston Road. After about two miles turn right at the crossroads ('Horsebridge and Duchy College'). Follow this winding road for about three miles (keeping straight on through several junctions). Eventually turn left ('Alston and Tutwell, Trax and Trails') and after about half a mile and on your left you will reach Hampton Manor (01579 370494).

A map is available on Hampton Manor's website at www.hamptonmanor.co.uk.
