

Ridgeway Methodist Church invites you to

An evening with Gary Streeter MP

at the
New Country Inn

on Friday 13 January
7.30pm

£10 per person

Gary Streeter grew up in east Devon and, after training in London, worked in Plymouth as a lawyer before a desire to help his community led him to get involved in politics. After serving for six years on Plymouth City Council, Gary was elected as Conservative Member of Parliament for Plymouth Sutton in 1992. Since 1997 he has served the newly-formed South-West Devon constituency.

As a committed Christian, Gary is involved with the work of the Conservative Christian Fellowship and the Parliamentary Christian Fellowship. This evening will give an opportunity for Gary to share how his Christian faith underpins his work.

Gary is married to Jan, and they have two children, and two grandchildren.
