INTRODUCTION

The Plympton Community Prayer Diary is designed as an aid to people who wish to pray regularly for our local community here in Plympton. Almost four hundred streets in the town have been divided into twenty-three zones (pictured below) and each of the zones appears on the diary once a month on the date that corresponds to its number. Days have also been allocated to the schools, churches, emergency services and nursing and residential homes in Plympton.

The prayer diary can be an aid to both prayers for the whole community in the areas and organisations that are featured, or for individuals or groups of people who fall into those areas. There are thirty-one different entries on the diary, but it can easily be adapted for months with fewer days by combining zones or groups or by leaving out the entry for the whole of Plympton, as this is covered by all the other days together.
